"A very useful and admirably edited and printed publication."—Morning Post.

"To praise 'Book-Prices Current' is unnecessary; it has become indispensable to book collectors, and of vital interest to all who care for literature."—Globe.

"Brunet, indeed, so long the book-buyer's chief delight, must yield to 'Book-Prices Current.'"—Notes and Queries.

"It is beyond comparison the book-collector's cyclopædia. Its own earlier volumes, curiously enough, command very high prices."—Daily Chronicle.

"The practical utility to buyers and sellers of an authoritative annual work of reference like this requires no demonstration. . . . The knowledge and skill displayed in this compilation merit cordial recognition."—Standard.

"To all classes of bookmen, the issues of 'Book-Prices Current' may be fairly pronounced indispensable."—Literary World.

"It may be said without exaggeration, that the annual volumes of Mr. Slater's admirable compilation are indispensable to such as desire to follow with any closeness the record of sales and the movements of the second-hand book market."—Times.

"Valuable to booksellers, and still more so to book-buyers. . . . This useful work has long established its position, and must have saved many a collector a bad bargain."—Athenæum.

"The work supplies a finely printed record which will be valued, not by the bookseller merely, but by the collector and librarian."—Daily Telegraph.

"The book collector's Bible."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The record is extremely useful for buyers and collectors of books, and is a valuable index to current phases of book-collecting, and to fluctuations in the market."—Saturday Review.

RECORD OF THE PRICES AT WHICH BOOKS HAVE BEEN SOLD AT AUCTION, FROM DECEMBER, 1897, TO THE CLOSE OF THE SEASON, 1898.

VOL. XII.

The present volume of BOOK PRICES CURRENT is completed in September instead of December as formerly. The reasons for this change are that the Auction year closes with September; that it is more convenient to Subscribers to receive their copies then, than in the following January and that the present volume contains more material than usual, including the second and final portions of the Ashburnham Sale.

INTRODUCTION.

FOR the first time in the history of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, two volumes have made their appearance in the space of a single year. Volume XI., which reported the sales by auction held during the interval between December, 1896, and November, 1897, inclusive, was ready early in January last ; Volume XII., the one now held in the hand, appears in this present month of September—a unique circumstance calling for explanation.

It has been the custom hitherto to commence the current year in December, and to close it in the November of the following year. The first volume of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT was compiled on this basis, for reasons which it is hardly necessary to mention, and all the succeeding volumes up to and including the eleventh were made to follow a rule which may or may not appear artificial, according to the point of view from which it is regarded. However this may be, it has been recognised that it would be more satisfactory to the general body of subscribers to make the contents of each volume coincide with the auction season, which has for many years commenced in October and terminated with the July of the following year or in the early days of August at the latest. So far as this volume is concerned, it has been necessary to commence where the preceding volume left off—that is to say, in December, 1897 ; but for the future each volume will strictly follow the course of the season : it will commence when it commences, and close when it terminates. It has been thought advisable to adopt this course rather than to follow the natural course of the year—January 1 to December 31—since the months of August, September, and half of October are completely blank so far as auction sales are concerned, and a hiatus of such a magnitude would certainly be most undesirable for many reasons, the chief being the delay occasioned by the necessity of waiting for the few sales, usually of minor importance, that take place at the close of the year. It is to be hoped that the new arrangement will prove satisfactory to subscribers and others who during a comparatively long course of years have learned to look upon BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, not only in the light of a valuable guide to contemporary events in the history of book-sales, but as an indispensable addition to the library.

Although this volume has lost, through the readjustment of its calendar, at least six weeks of life, it is larger in bulk than any of its predecessors. This is owing principally to the reports of the two out of the three portions of the great Ashburnham Sale which are chronicled in its pages, though the presence of other extensive reports, which could not be omitted without challenging the utility of the work, must not be overlooked, as contributing very materially, not merely to the bulk of the volume, but to its intrinsic value as well. For instance, the Library of Mr. A. C. Lamb, of Dundee, mentioned on p. 177 et seq., contained such a remarkable collection of editions of Burns' Poems that it was found advisable to report the whole sale, irrespective of the amounts realised. Some of the Miscellaneous Sales held at Messrs. Sotheby's were also of quite unusual importance, and have had to be dealt with as they deserved. A glance at the Table of Contents will show that though the libraries offered for sale during the season 1897-98 are fewer in number than usual, they are of exceptional importance as a whole. The usual tabular analysis will show this to be so:

December, 1892, to November, 1893	No. of Lots, 49,671	Amount realised, £66,470
" 1893 " " 1894	" " 51,108	" " £72,472
" 1894 " " 1895	" " 45,431	" " £71,229
" 1895 " " 1896	" " 47,268	" " £80,111
" 1896 " " 1897	" " 37,358	" " £100,259
" 1897 " July 1898	" " 33,763	" " £92,857

The average (December, 1897, to July 30, 1898) is here £2 15s. per lot, as against £2 13s. 9d. for a rather longer period disclosed by the records of Volume XI., which average, it must be remembered, was almost solely brought about by the first portion of the Ashburnham Library, worth nearly as much as the remaining two put together, for it realised £30,150, though the entries in the catalogue only numbered 1683.

There is no question that the sales reported in this volume are the most important that have occupied the attention of the various auctioneers for at least ten years, while the prices realised have, in many instances, been phenomenal.

Just at the moment there is no new thing in the Book-world to chronicle ; no unusual demand for the works of this or that author; or for books of a certain class or kind. Book-buyers appear to be taking matters calmly at present, and in my opinion this volume of BOOK-PRICES CURRENT discloses the market in a state of quiescence, a remark it is not necessary to qualify even in the face of the Ashburnham Sale, where prices ruled high, as they always do when large and important libraries find their way into the sale-rooms. Books of the special kind affected by the late Earl of Ashburnham are just those which never fail to attract ; the prices realised for such works are always large, since the demand for them is universal and their scarcity proverbial.

 [Lever's "Harry Lorrequer" has really two endings, for the last chapter as the author originally wrote it was lost in the post, and before it could be recovered he had written another for the publishers, who in 1837 were issuing the novel in serial form in the Dublin University Magazine. This ending is the one that appears in the first edition of the novel (ut supra). The original MS. subsequently arrived, and the text of that forms a second ending, as it should have been the first. The new edition of the whole works of Lever, published in 1897, contains both endings.—ED.]

- 225 Horæ. "Has Horas composuit Papa Johannes vicesimus secundus, et donavit omnibus vere penitentibus confessis et contritis eas devote dicentibus, quadraginta annos indulgentiarum et quatuor carenas," lit. goth., long lines, 18 to a page, rubricated, part printed and part MS. on vellum and paper (with all faults), old oaken boards, leather, 1 clasp, Absque ulla nota (Sæc. XV.), 12mo. (2015) Quaritch, £4 4s.

[This volume contained altogether 128 leaves, 66 printed with very irregular signatures, beginning apparently with 'O,' so perhaps a continuation of a larger work. The MS. was contemporary, partly on paper, and partly upon vellum. —Catalogue.]

- 226 Horæ. Heures a l'usage de Lyon (avec le Calendrier) nouvellement imprimées et corrigées a Paris, lit. goth., red and black, within ornamental borders, small woodcuts in the text, contemporary limp vellum, with gilt crucifix within laurel wreath on sides, g. e., A Paris par T. Kerver pour Adam Aymery, libraire a Lyon, 1506, vii. daoust, 32mo. (2016)

C. Clarke, £23 10s.

[Printed upon vellum, excessively rare, not in Brunet's List, nor in the Supplement.—Catalogue.]

- 227 Horæ. "Ces Presentes Heures a l'usage de Paris toutes au long sans riens requirir, nouvellement imprimées a Paris, avec plusieurs belles hystoires tant au Kalendrier," etc. (Latine et Fr.), lit. goth. mag., red and black (ruled in red), Kerver's device on title, astrological man (mutilated), 12 large oval woodcuts within borders in the calendar, 42 nearly full-page woodcuts, with French verses beneath, 30 small historiated woodcut initials, numerous ornamental capitals, and device on last leaf, all painted and illuminated in a superior style of art, old French morocco, on oaken boards, full gilt back tooled au pointillé, line sides with fleurons at angles, gilt edges, A Paris par Thielman Kerver, 1522, xxix. Avril, small 8vo. (2017) B. F. Stevens, £60

[Printed upon vellum, a very finely printed volume, with extraordinary illustrations, and of extreme rarity in this condition. The Long Colophon is found on reverse of leaf before the Commendationes. One of the illustrations in the Calendar shows a boy being birched in school, and the nude figures of Bathsheba, Adam and Eve, Job, and others are very boldly presented.—Catalogue.]

- 228 Horæ in laudem Beatissime Virginis Marie secundum Consuetudinem Ecclesie Parisiensis (cum Calendario), lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), red and black, printed within fine woodcut borders of birds, fruits, flowers, animals, insects, etc., with arms of Francis I., Anne of Brittany, crowned L and F, pot cassé, etc., by Geoffroy Tory, 13 woodcuts in simple outline (Death on a black horse, etc.) (all washed in colours), old calf, fine copy, Paris par Simon du Bois pour Geoffroy Tory de Bourges, 1527, xxii. doctobre (device of Pot Cassé on title and last leaf), small 4to. (2018) Leighton, £31

[Exceedingly rare, the remarkable borders were used by Tory and his successors in various editions. Some of the woodcuts have been facsimiled in Dibdin's "Bibliographical Decameron."—Catalogue.]

- 229 Horæ Secundum Ecclesiam Parisiensis (ut supra), ruled in red, contemporary calf, with border of stamped blind ornaments, gilt fleur-de-lis at each corner, and 2 dolphins in centres, and may have been bound by Tory for Henri II. while Dauphin, gilt and gauffred edges, Paris, S. du Bois pour Geoffroy Tory de Bourges, 1527, xxii. doctobre, small 4to. (2019) Quaritch, £141

[Another, but much finer and larger copy of the same edition as the above, printed upon paper of a thinner texture. It measured $8\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $5\frac{3}{4}$ in., and was perfectly clean and genuine throughout. A finer copy is hardly likely ever to occur for sale.—Catalogue.]

- 230 Horæ. Heures de Paris contenant plusieurs Oraisons deuotes en Français et en Latin, et Confession Generale, finely printed in roman letter, red and black, on thick paper, every page surrounded by a remarkable woodcut border of animals flowers, fruit, cupids, etc., with crowned initials L (Louis II.) F (Francis I.), arms of Anne of Brittany, of France, Salamander, etc., alternating in lower margins, small woodcuts in the text, French red morocco, plain, inside dentelles, g. on m. e., by Niedré (Yemeniz copy), Paris, par Thielman Kerver, 1552, 12mo. (2020) B. F. Stevens, £52

[A very fine copy of this rare edition, on paper nearly as stout as vellum. The borders are by Geoffroy Tory, and appear in a Latin edition issued by O. Maillard in 1541, and in other editions.—Catalogue.]

- 231 Horæ intemerate beate Mariæ Virginis secundum Usam Pic-taviens. (cum Calendario), lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), title (the Saint Graal device), Astrological Man (mutilated), 17 full-page woodcuts, device at end, and the small historiated woodcuts and initial letters and ornamented borders all finely painted and illuminated, 2 different coats of arms occur in the margins (contains 88 leaves), contemporary black morocco with crucifix in centre, r. e., "Ces presentes heures a l'usage de—(space left for name of place) furent acheuées le XVIII jour de aoust mil cinq cens et deux pour Anthoine Verard, 1502, small 4to. (2021) Quaritch, £22

[Printed upon vellum. An exceedingly rare edition, not noted by Brunet. Below the genealogical tree from Jesse occurs the following: "Hore dive Virginis Marie secundum usum"—(no name). The word "Pictaviens," occurs on the leaf before the "Suffrages," partly erased, but the abbreviation of the printer at the beginning of the signatures is "Po." An inscription on the fly-leaf states that "Ce heures appartient a Madame de la Meschinneres a present Madame Dedamene," and at the end is the following: "A Mademoiselle de Verdigny Rue St. Jacques Angers."—Catalogue.

- 232 Horæ virginis intemperate secundum Usum Romanæ Ecclesiæ (cum Calendario), printed in a peculiar script type in red and black, 12 woodcuts in the calendar, 50 woodcuts in the text, 30 large ornamental initials and numerous capitals, etc., all finely painted and illuminated, velvet binding on oaken boards, gilt edges, Apud Parrhisios per Guillelmum le Rouge, s. d. (sans Almanach), small 8vo. (2022) Quaritch, £28

[Printed on vellum; with remarkably fine decorations; and an excessively rare edition. The figure of Death at the bedside of two females in the calendar for December is especially noted by Brunet. This appears to be a different edition than the one he mentions, as the title has no device, but has an emblazoned coat of arms (female), Azure, 3 spread eagles or, surrounded with flowers and motto, "In Eternum."—Catalogue.]

- 233 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis ad Usum Romanum (cum Calendario), lit. goth., within ornamental and historiated woodcut borders, 15 large and numerous smaller woodcuts of a remarkable character, capitals painted in red and green, old calf, with devices of Crucifix and Virgin and Child in centre "Ces presentes Heures furent achevees le XIII Jour du Moys de Fevrier l'an MCCCCiiii XX et IX (1489) pour Denis Meslier," 12mo. (2023) Pickering, £179

[An excessively rare and remarkable edition, not in Brunet's List, though he notices the "Heures de Bourges" by the same printer about the same date. It commences (without title) with the woodcut Astrological Man, on the reverse of which is the almanack for twenty years (1488-1508). The signatures are a-c. a-i4 in 8's, after which comes another signature for the Psalter, which has 28 leaves; the title may be wanting, as its signature has only 7 leaves, and the second c has also 7 leaves only. On reverse of i4 the words, "Expliciunt hore beate marie Virginis ad usum romanum." The borders composed of flowers and fabulous animals. The binder's date on the back was erroneous.—Catalogue.

- 234 Horæ ad Usum Romanum (cum Calendario), lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), printed within historiated compartmental woodcut borders, with quotations in gothic in the margins in a different type, device on title, figure of Astrological Man, 17 full-page woodcuts in divisions within borders and numerous smaller woodcuts, the capitals illuminated, some leaves stained, new limp vellum, in new morocco case, Achevées a Paris par Jehan Morand pour Joffroy de Marnef,

1492. xii. Feburier (the date on the case, 1487, erroneous), 8vo. (2024) Pickering, £105

[Printed upon vellum; extremely rare edition, with unusual designs, the two before the "Vigiliæ Mortuorum" being especially spirited. This copy had not the "sept pseumes en François" found in the following. The Colophon in this occupied the space which is blank in the other. Contains 132 leaves.—Catalogue.]

- 235 [Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis ad Usum Romanum.] Cum Calendario, et "les sept Pseumes en François translatees au plus pres du Latin," lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), printed within historiated woodcut compartmental borders, with quotations in gothic in the margins in different type, figure of Astrological Man, 19 fine full-page woodcuts in divisions within borders, numerous smaller woodcuts, capitals illuminated, contains 111 leaves and 10 leaves for the "Sept. Pseumes," wanted title, some margins shaved (with all faults), contemporary oaken boards, brown morocco, fleurs-de-lis on back, gilt ornamental borders and centre fleurons, clasps, gilt edges in new half morocco case, Absque ulla nota [Paris, par Jehan Morand pour Joffroy de Marnef, 1492, xii. Feburier], 8vo. (2025) F. Murray, £42

[Printed upon vellum; a very rare edition, with unusual designs). The two woodcuts at the "Vigiliæ Mortuorum" are exceedingly spirited. The space on the recto of E8 occupied by the imprint in the former copy is here blank.—Catalogue.]

- 236 Horæ. Ces Presentes Heures a Lusaige de Rome (avec le Calendrier) furent achevez le XVI Jour de Septembre l'an Mil CCCC (last C erased) iiii XX et XVIII pour Simon Vostre, lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), within fine woodcut borders of hunting scenes, the xii Sibylls, Dance of Death, Scriptural subjects, etc., large device of Pigouchet on title within border, with Astrological Man on reverse, 22 fine full-page woodcuts, numerous historiated woodcut initials, all the smaller capitals illuminated (signatures a-k in 8's) (the outside and lower plain margins of last leaf cut off), limp vellum, Paris, pour Simon Vostre, 1498 (Almanach, 1488-1508), small 4to. (2026) Quaritch, £101

[Printed upon vellum; of excessive rarity. An edition not mentioned in Brunet's List. The volume had very wide fore and lower margins. It measured 9 $\frac{3}{8}$ in. by 6 $\frac{3}{8}$ in., while the form is only 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 4 $\frac{5}{8}$ in.—Catalogue.]

- 237 Horæ intemeratæ Virginis Mariæ Secundum Usum Romanum (cum Calendario), Latin et François, lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), printed within fine woodcut borders of Biblical subjects, etc., Kerver's device on title, Astrological Man on reverse, 16 large and spirited woodcuts within borders, capitals illuminated, old calf, with device of crucifix in gold in centres, gilt edges, Ces presentes heures . . furent achevees le xvi. jour de Sept. l'an 1499, Paris, per Th. Kerver, small 4to. (2027) Quaritch, £165

[Printed upon vellum; excessively rare, and a fine and perfect copy. Registers of the births of members of French families named Lucas, Curguet, and Chezeau on fly-leaves.—Catalogue.]

- 238 Horæ, Heures a Lusaige de Rome, tout au long sans riens requérir, avec les figures de la Vie de l'homme, et la destruction de Hierusalem ensemble, et plusieurs autres belles hystoires, faictes alamode ditalie (Latine), lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), printed within remarkably fine woodcut borders, the title (which is the Rape of Dejanira, without any letterpress), and the 15 full-page woodcuts painted on a rich gold ground, with many of the costumes and details also in gold, 27 historiated initial miniatures and numerous ornamental capitals also painted and illuminated, oaken boards, sides covered with stamped ornaments, Imprimées à Paris, par Guill. Anabat pour Gillet Hardouyn, s. a. [Almanach, 1500-20], 4to. (2028) C. Clarke, £84

[Printed upon vellum, of exceeding rarity. Brunet does not mention a vellum copy. Four painted and illuminated miniature initials from a MS. missal of the fifteenth century inserted in fly-leaves. Apparently wanted a leaf in sheet N.—Catalogue.]

- 239 Horæ divæ Virginis Marie Secundum Usus Romanum, totaliter ad longum, cum multis Suffragiis (cum Calendario), ruled in red, finely printed in neat roman letter, Hardouin's device of the Rape of Dejanira on title, figure of Death on reverse, 16 full-page woodcuts, 32 historiated initials and numerous capitals, etc., all very finely painted and illuminated (a few leaves soiled), velvet binding, gilt edges, on vellum, Paris, noviter impressum opera Egidii Hardouyn pro Germ. Hardouyn, s. a. [Almanach, 1510-30], small 8vo. (2029) J. D. Fry, £15 15s.

- 240 Horæ divæ Virginis Mariæ Secundum Usus Romanum decorate varietatibus hystoriarum nuper efformatarum (cum Calendario), lit. goth., red and black (quotations in margins in red), within elegant woodcut borders of Biblical subjects, grotesques, Dance of Death, ribband and floral ornaments, Kerver's device on title, 18 very choice and remarkable full-page woodcuts within borders, and numerous small historiated initials and cuts in the calendar, capitals illuminated, modern black morocco, plain, inside dentelles, gilt edges by Duru, Impressum Paris, per Thielmannum Kerver, 1511, xxiii. Julii, small 8vo. (2030) F. Murray, £34 10s.

[Printed upon vellum. A beautiful copy of an extremely rare edition; not in the Bourbon Catalogue.—Catalogue.]

- 241 Horæ Beatæ Mariæ Virginis Secundum Verum Usus Romanum totaliter ad longum, cum multis orationibus, printed in script type, in red and black, with full-page and smaller woodcuts, painted and illuminated, and illuminated initials, coats of arms on front and back of a leaf at beginning and at end (names erased), but that at end having initials H. F. and "Redemptoris Mundi Arma" on leaf at end, bound in 2 vol., old French red morocco, full gilt backs, line sides, gilt edges (Derome), Paris, T. Kerver, 1514, 64mo. (2031) F. Murray, £12 10s.

[Printed upon vellum; a remarkably rare little edition, measuring $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $1\frac{3}{4}$ in. Not in Brunet or the Supplement.—Catalogue.]

- 242 Horæ. "Ces Presentes Heures a l'usage de Rome, sont toutes au long sans riens requirir avecques quesles Grans Suffrages imprimées nouvellement pour Guillaume Eustace." Latinè (avec le calendrier et Petites Prieres en Français), lit. goth. (lettres bâtarde), ruled in red, 18 full-page woodcuts (metallized) of an extraordinary character, with ornamental borders on the opposite pages of 17 of them, other smaller woodcuts, capitals illuminated, device of Eustace on title, oaken boards, purple velvet, gilt edges, Imprimées a Paris, par Jehan de la Roche, pour Guill. Eustace, l'an 1514 (sans mois), small 4to. (2032) F. Murray, £13 10s.

[Printed upon vellum; exceedingly rare; no copy in the Bourbon Catalogue. The woodcuts are of a different design from most of the Books of Hours of this period, some having the glossy surface characteristic of metal plates. There are no borders to this edition except those which face the woodcuts. In the calendar are several entries of the birth and death days of a French family named Cerberet, from 1551 to 1591.—Catalogue.]

- 243 Horæ. Heures a la Louange de la Vierge Marie Selon l'Usaige de Rome. Esquelles sont contenues les quatre Passions, etc., le tout au long sans y rien requierir, tres correct in bons orthographie, etc., Latinè (title, privilege and imprint only in French), ruled in red, finely printed in neat roman letters, red and black, within woodcut arabesque borders by Geoffroy Tory, with his device of the "Pot Cassé" on title and last leaf, and 13 fine large woodcuts in simple outline, the whole painted and heightened in gold in the most delicate and tasteful manner, bound in green velvet, gilt and gauffred edges, in new morocco case, "Ces presentes heures a l'usage de Rome furent achevees de imprimer le Mardy dix septième de jour de Janvier Mil cinq cens vingteing pour Maistre Geofry Tory de Bourges Libraire demourant à Paris au Pot Casse," 1521, Jan. xvii., small 4to. (2033) Quaritch, £860

[Printed upon vellum; an exceedingly rare edition. The illumination of the volume was done for François de Balsac, Chevalier de St. Esprit, in 1578, Seigneur d'Enragues, etc., who married Jacqueline de Rohan; the Rohan coat of arms with the Balzac shield over all is emblazoned on fly-leaf. The woodcut of Death before the "Pro Defunctis" represents him with wings and spear striding over the dead, while a raven stands on the branch of a dead tree and utters the words, "Cras, cras." Tory's general representation of this subject is Death riding on a black horse. Having regard to the extraordinary beauty of this copy, it may fairly be termed unique. See Dibdin's "Bib. Dec.," i.—Catalogue.]

- 244 Horæ in Laudem Beatiss. Semper Virginis Mariæ Secundum

Consuetudinem Romanæ Curiae, ubi orthographia, puncta et accentus suis locis habentur (cum Calendario), Privilege du Roy in French, finely printed in roman letter, in red and black, within elegant woodcut arabesque borders by Geoffroy Tory, the 11 large woodcuts and their borders, and first border of text finely painted and illuminated in a high style of art, but many other borders badly coloured, ruled in red, contemporary calf, with gilt ornaments in Tory's style, by whom it may have been bound as well as published, and decorated with the Imperial crowned double-headed Eagle of Poland in centres, gilt and gauffred edges, a LARGE COPY, *Paris, S. (cum Calendario), lit. goth., red and black within elegant ornamental borders by Geoffroy Tory, with 16 fine large woodcuts in simple outline, and several smaller ones, ornamental initials, and Tory's device of "Pot Cassé" on title and last leaf, old calf gilt, red edges, Paris, par Ollivier Maillard au Pot Cassé, 1538, fuit excusum, 12mo. (2039)

Quaritch, £19 10s.

- 250 Horæ in laudem Beatissimæ Virginis Mariæ secundum usum Ecclesiæ Romanæ, cum Calendario, ruled in red, printed in neat roman letters in red and black, Hardouin's device on title, 14 half-page woodcuts, several smaller ones, and all the capitals painted and illuminated, contemporary oaken boards, smooth brown calf with fleurs-de-lis on back, line sides with centre gilt ornaments, with name and date Marguerite Drognyes, Anno 1555 on sides, gilt edges, in half morocco case, Ces presentes heures . . . ont este imprimées a Paris par Germain Hardouyn MD.XL [date partly erased, Almanack, 1539-60], 16mo. (2040) Maggs, £3 3s.

[Printed upon vellum, very rare. In the fly-leaves are entries of the marriage of Bauldwin de Montmorency Sieur de Hubermont and "Madame de Freulz sa Compaigne," xxvi. November, 1505, of two births and of the death of the Sieur de Hubermont in 1513.—Catalogue.]

- 251 Horæ in laudem beatissimæ Virginis Mariæ ad Usum Romanum, finely printed in roman letter in red and black, with small woodcuts, every page surrounded by a remarkable border of fruit, flowers, animals and cupids, with arms of France and Brittany, crowned initials L and F, salamanders, etc., alternating in bottom margins, oaken boards, covered in velvet, gilt edges, Paris, apud Oliverium Maillardi sub Signum Vasis effracti, 1541, small 8vo. (2041) C. Clarke, £530

[Printed upon pure vellum, an immaculate copy. Excessively rare. The remarkable borders by Geoffroy Tory were first used by him in an edition of the Horæ printed in 1529; and were used afterwards in several editions in Latin and French published by Kerver and others. This edition, printed by Maillard, Tory's successor, had Tory's device of the "Pot Cassé" on title, and the arms of Anne of Brittany in the bottom margin. Bernard ("Geoffroy Tory," could only cite one copy on vellum.—Catalogue.]

[The first edition of this celebrated romance of chivalry, exceedingly rare. Part I. commenced with a table of 4 leaves (a a), the text beginning on a i and ending on recto of z iii; Part II. commenced on verso of z iii and proceeded to l iii, followed by 2 leaves of table. The lower corners of leaves in k and l in this part repaired; Part III. commenced with a and ended on recto of Q v; Part IV., "La Partie du Saint Graal," commenced with the table on verso of Q v and ended on c c 6; Part V. commenced with the table on dd and ended on k k 8. This last leaf had some words cut off the top corner, which was mended. All the signatures in eights except n in Part I., p and Q in Part III., and g g in Part V., which were sixes. Brunet says there should be a leaf containing a large woodcut of the Round Table, which this copy had not. Apart from its slight defects already enumerated this copy was clean, sound, and in fine condition generally. It was Richard Heber's copy.—Catalogue.]

- [Of this extremely rare and most interesting Caxton book, Blades enumerates six copies, of which two only are perfect. It is one of the earliest of those six works printed in Caxton's No. 1 type, the same in which the English version of the book was printed. It is also the most ancient edition of this romance. The last leaf ends with the word "EXPLICIT" in the centre of the page. This was the Roxburghe copy, afterwards Hanrott's, at whose sale it was purchased by the late Earl of Ashburnham. The total number of leaves wanted is 33.—Catalogue.]

Caxton], small folio (2305)

Pickering, £950

[Of sixteen known copies of this most interesting Caxton book, the first book printed in English. The Earl of Jersey's was the only perfect copy known. It is printed in the same No. 1 type as the French version. Blades gives it the first place in his work, as it was during the progress of this book through the press that Caxton (as he informs us in the prologue to the third book) learned the new art of printing. The translation into English was "begun at Bruges, continued in Ghent and finished in Cologne." The number of leaves wanted in this copy was 49. It was generally sound and in good condition, and was purchased by the late owner at the sale of E. V. Utterson's library.—Catalogue.]

- 402 [Le Fevre (Raoul).] Le Recueil des Histoires de Troye la Grande, nouvellement abregé, title within woodcut border with Harsy's device, full-page woodcut on reverse, large woodcut and ornamental initial on each page, yellow morocco gilt, gilt edges by Hering, fine copy, rare, Lyon, Denys de Harsy, 1544, small folio (2306) Leighton, £34 10s.

- 403 Le Fevre (Raoul). A Boke of the Hoole Lyf of Jason (translated out of the French by Wm. Caxton), black letter, long lines, 29 lines to a full page, without marks, contemporary English binding in oaken boards, stamped ornamental leather (rebacked), No imprint, Westminster, by Wm. Caxton [circa 1477], small folio (2307) Pickering, £2,100

[A quite perfect and most remarkable copy of this extremely rare Caxton book, one of the earliest productions of the press at Westminster. Blades mentions seven copies, and refers to this one as the "finest copy known," having rough edges, and measuring $11\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 8 in. None of the other copies enumerated reaches more than $10\frac{1}{2}$ in., and most are not taller than 10 in. Blades is, however, in error in mentioning only one original blank, as this copy had two (one at the beginning and one at the end), making in all 150 leaves, or 148 printed leaves, and two blanks. The whole of the volume was genuine throughout, sound and clean, and had the initials painted in red. In such condition this copy must be regarded as unique. It was formerly Richard Heber's, and has a leaf of bibliographical details in

- his handwriting. He speaks of it as being probably the "finest in existence," and says it was bought by Triphook at the sale of John Erskine's library in 1817 for Mr. Watson Taylor for the sum of £162 15s. At Watson Taylor's sale it was purchased by Thorpe for Mr. Heber for £95 11s., and at Heber's sale for £87 by Payne the bookseller, from whom it was purchased by the late Earl of Ashburnham.—Catalogue.]

Byrckmanni, diligentia vero Wolffgangi Hopilii* 1504, xiii. Kal. Mensis Sept., folio (2612) Quaritch, £192

[A fine, large, and perfect copy of this rare Sarum Missal, not enumerated by Weale, and very little known elsewhere. It contained 8 preliminary leaves, followed by numbered folios to cxxxvi, then 83 unnumbered leaves; succeeded by lvii numbered leaves and the last leaf, which is unnumbered. On the inside of the first cover was the following inscription: "Johannes Ramsey Ptr. Sanctandree Dioc. hunc possidet librum"; and on the end fly-leaf: "Tho. Morio Arm', dñs. Johannes Ramsey Ptr. Sanctiandree dioces. huius pos's libri anno millesimo quingentesimo tricesimo," etc.—Catalogue.]

- 585 Missale ad usum et Consuetudinem Sarum (cum Calendario), lit. goth., red and black, musical notes, fine woodcut title, full-page woodcut of the Crucifixion before the Canon on vellum, first leaf of Canon also on vellum, numerous small woodcuts and ornamental initials (small hole in title and fourth leaf of Calendar, plain margins of several leaves mended, wanted sheet b and apparently folios lxxxvii-lxxxviii, folio clxv and a leaf at end, a device in facsimile with 4 tricks of arms on last leaf, sold not subject to return), oaken boards, stamped ornamental leather with initials G. W. in the borders (rebacked), Paris, Opera Wuolffgangi Hopylii impenses Fr. Byrckman, 1514, Nov. 28, folio (2613)

Quaritch, £46

[Notwithstanding its defects, this rare copy of the Sarum Missal was in fine condition, with wide margins. The names of the Popes and Thomas à Becket had been erased. Two MS. entries of the births of members of the Haslewood family (one of whose godfathers, 1570, was William Habington, of Kiddington) occur in the Calendar.—Catalogue.]

- 586 Missale Sacerrimi Ordinis Beati Benedicti, lit. goth., red and black, musical notes, the Canon being printed in very large gothic type, similar to that in the Mozarabic Missal (1500), illuminated miniature initial on first page, with the margins painted in flower scrolls, the fine full-page woodcut of the Crucifixion painted on a rich gold ground, margins of the first page of Canon finely painted, with a remarkable drawing in colours of a large initial T representing Abraham and Isaac, 20 large painted ornamental initials and all the capitals in blue and red, modern plain blue morocco covering oaken boards, per Johannem Sensenschmidt in Montis Monachorum loco penes nobilem urbem Babenbergensem Anno 1481 die xxxi. Julii, folio (2614) Hone, £130

[Printed upon vellum; of very great rarity. Dibdin describes this edition in "Bib. Spenc.," i. 133, and remarks that it is the first work printed by Sensenschmidt at Bamberg. It contained cclvii leaves numbered in red without signatures. It wanted folio cxi, which was supplied in MS., and according to Weale 4 preliminary leaves. It had 2 leaves of an ancient MS. as fly-leaves.—Catalogue.]

- 587 Missale Monasticum secundum Ritum et Morem Monachorum Congregationis Casinensis al's Sancte Justine, lit. goth., red and black, musical notes, woodcuts and architectural borders and ornamental woodcut initials with marginal decorations, full-page woodcut of the Crucifixion within architectural border, modern morocco, line tooled, by Clyde, fine copy, *Venet., L. [In connection with this subject reference may be made to Howell's Letters, ed. 1753, p. 264. Writing from Westminster on July 3, 1632, Howell says: "As I past by St. Dunstan's in Fleet Street the last Saturday I stept into a lapidary or stone-cutter's shop to treat with the master for a stone to be put upon my father's tomb, and. casting my eyes up and down, I espied a hugh marble with a large inscription upon it, which was thus to my best remembrance:

"Here lies John Oxenham, a goodly young man, in whose chamber, as he was struggling with the pangs of death, a bird with a white breast was seen fluttering about his bed, and so vanished.

"Here lies also Mary Oxenham, the sister of the said John, who died the next day, and the same apparition was seen in the room.

"Here lies hard by James Oxenham, the son of the said John, who died a child in his cradle a little after, and such a bird was seen fluttering about his head a little before he expired, which vanished afterwards."

Howell then goes on to say that at the bottom of the stone the names of divers witnesses to the above were engraven.—Ed.]

- 1145 Worlidge (Thomas). A Selection of Drawings from Curious Antique Gems, etched after the manner of Rembrandt, 2 vol., a Set of the original issue of these plates printed upon satin, each plate mounted upon stout paper, within a coloured frame, bound in crimson morocco, the sides richly tooled, silk linings, gilt edges [by Fargher], 1768, folio (710) Mason, £15 15s.

[This copy had the genuine text of the year 1768 inlaid to the same size as the plate mounts, and ruled with gilt lines. The ordinary issue of these plates which appeared after 1780, although retaining the date of 1768, had a portrait of Worlidge as frontispiece to vol. i. This did not appear in this set. There was, however, the scarce plate of Hercules strangling the Lion at the end of vol. ii., also the Head of Medusa, frontispiece to the same volume.—Catalogue.]

[Presentation copy to John M'Murdo, Esq., Drumlanrig, from Robert Burns, the Poet.

"To John M'Murdo, Esquire, Drumlanrig.—Will Mr. M'Murdo do me the favor to accept of these volumes; a trifling but sincere mark of the very high respect I bear for his worth as a man, his manners as a gentleman, and his kindness as a friend. However inferior now, or afterwards, I may rank as a Poet; one honest virtue, to which few Poets can pretend, I trust I shall ever claim as mine:—to no man, whatever his station in life, or his power to serve me, have I ever paid a compliment at the expense of truth."
—The Author.

Copy of verses written on a pane of glass in Mr. M'Murdo's house by Burns. Photographic Portrait of Burns, after Nasmyth.—Catalogue.]

SOTHEY, WILKINSON & HODGE.

A MISCELLANEOUS COLLECTION, COMPRISING A SERIES OF HERBALS, BOOKS ON GARDENING, THACKERAYANA, SHAKESPEARIANA, A PORTION OF THE LIBRARY OF DR. MAURICE JOHNSON, F.S.A., AND SEVERAL OTHER PROPERTIES.

(No. of Lots, 1657 ; amount realised, £7,360 14s. 6d.)

[NOTE.—The remarkable collection of books illustrative of the life and works of Shakespeare, which were to have been offered in one lot at the time of sale with a reserved price, were previously disposed of by private treaty (Lots 1231 to 1334 inclusive).—ED.]

(a) A Collection of Early Herbals.

- 3148 Arbolayre cotenāt la qualitey et virtus proprietiez des herbes arbres gōmes et semēces extraite de pluseurs tratiers de médecine coment daucēne de rasis de constātin de ysaac et plateaire selon le cōnu usage bien correct, lit. goth., 2 columns, 39 lines, numerous fine woodcuts, including the full-page one of the botanists in council (defective at top corner and backed), some leaves torn and mended, large copy, red morocco, gilt edges, Sans lieu ni date (Lyons, M. Husz, circa 1485 ?), small folio (642) Robson, £86
- [Of extraordinary rarity, the only other copy known being that in the Bibliothèque National at Paris. Brunet calls it "ce volume précieux," and especially mentions the fine wood engraving at the back of the title. It is a translation of the German Herbal printed at Basle, and was printed at Lyons, probably by M. Husz.—Catalogue.]

- 3149 Büch der Natur, das inhalt von eygenschafft und natur des Menschen, etc., von Cunrat von Megenberg von latein in teutsch transzferieret, lit. goth., 294 leaves, including 2 blanks, long lines, 28 to the full page, without pagination, signatures, or catchwords, numerous fine full-page woodcuts in the style of the block-books, coloured by a contemporary artist, tears in a few leaves, fine and practically uncut copy, original publisher's binding of boards covered with stamped leather (defective), remains of clasps, Augspurg von Johannes Bamler, 1475, small folio (643)

[First edition of one of the finest woodcut books produced at Augspurg in the fifteenth century. The late William Morris in his article on the woodcut books at Ulm and Augspurg thus speaks of it: "With many full-page cuts of much interest. It has full-page cuts of animals, herbs, and human figures exceedingly quaint, but for the most part very well designed, a half-figure of a bishop 'in pontificalibus' is particularly bold and happy."—Catalogue.]

- 3150 Büch der Natur, lit. goth., 292 leaves (one missing), long lines, 28 to the full page, without pagination, signatures, or catchwords, with same woodcuts as above, coloured in a superior manner by a contemporary artist, fine copy, oak boards backed with stamped leather, Augspurg, J. Bamler, 1478, small folio (644)

[Second edition, but almost as rare as the first of 1475. The type is different and the ornamental initials are not in outline, otherwise it is practically the same book as the Editio Princeps. The quality of the colouring in this copy seems to point to Bamler himself as the artist, for he was well-known as an illuminator in Augspurg long before he started printing there. Lord Ashburnham's copy sold for £54 last December.—Catalogue.]

- 3151 Büch der Natur, lit. goth., long lines, 39 to the full page, with numerous spirited full-page woodcuts (one slightly coloured and another defective), wanted N 6 and B 1, several leaves torn and strengthened, large copy, original boards, covered with stamped pigskin, Augspurg, Hanns Schonsperger, 1499, small folio (645)

Leighton, £11 15s.

[The cuts are copies of those in the first edition of 1475, with the addition of two others from the Strassburg Hortus Sanitatis of circa 1490.—Catalogue.]

- 3152 Crescentius (Petr. de). Ruralium Commodorum, Lib. XII., editio princeps, lit. goth., long lines, ornamental initials in red and green, small hole in first leaf, 3 words of last leaf supplied in MS., damp stained in lower margin, large copy, old half binding, Augspurg, J. Schüssler, 1471, small folio (646)

Hemsley, £3 6s.

[First edition of this celebrated treatise on agriculture and a very early example of Schüssler's Augspurg press, specimens from which are rarely met with.—Catalogue.]

- 3153 Crescentius (P. de). Ruralium Commodorum, Lib. XII., lit. goth., double columns, few wormholes, large copy with the blank leaf at end, original boards, backed with stamped pigskin, Argent. (J. Gruninger), 1486, small folio (647)
Downing, £2 10s.
- 3154 Crescentius (P. de). Ruralium Commodorum, lit. goth., double columns, numerous spirited woodcuts of plants, animals, gardening and farming operations, etc., wanted a 1 and blank leaf at end, else fine large copy, original boards, backed with stamped pigskin, very rare, Sine nota (Argent., Ren. Beck, circa 1490), small folio (648) Quaritch, £11 10s.
[The earliest edition with illustrations (?). Printed in the same type as the Hortus Sanitatis of circa 1490, which Holtrop ascribes to R. Beck.—Catalogue.]
- 3155 Crescentius (P. de). Nutz der ding die in ackeren gebuwt werdē, lit. goth., double columns, numerous spirited woodcuts, including a fine full-page engraving of the Creation, different from those in the edition of circa 1490, outer margin of title strengthened, fine large copy, old half binding, Strassburg, J. Schott, 1518, small folio (649) Quaritch, £5 15s.
- 3156 Crescentius (P. de). De Omnibus Agriculturæ partibus et de plantarum, etc., Lib. XII., numerous woodcuts, blank portion of title and corner of preface a little defective, some leaves of index wanted, large copy, old marbled calf, Basilea, H. Petri, 1548, folio (650)
Downing, £2
- 3157 Dioscorides. In dioscoridis anazarbei de medica matera libros quinque enarrationes eruditissimi Doctoris Amati Lusitani, wanted a 2, half vellum, covered with portion of a 15th century MS. Missal, Argent., W. Ribelius, 1554, 4to. (651)
Hemsley, £1
- 3158 Glanvilla Anglicus (Bart. de). De proprietatibus rerum, lit. goth., 2 columns, 61 lines to the full column, 10 leaves in contemporary MS., fine and very large copy, with blank leaf at the beginning and half that at the end, original boards, covered with stamped leather, Sine nota (Basilea, Richel or Wensler, circa 1470) (652) Quaritch, £8 10s.
[One of the earliest editions of this famous mediæval encyclopædia, printed with the type used both by Richel and Wensler at Bale.—Catalogue.]
- 3159 Herbarium. Le Livre des Simples Médecines, suivi d'un Recueil de Recettes, etc., French Manuscript (314 leaves), clearly written in lettres bâtarde in double columns, partly on vellum and partly on paper, with many hundred coloured drawings of plants, fishes, polyps, insects, utensils, etc., and 10 miniature paintings of hunting scenes, husbandry processes, etc., many additions at the end in a later hand, on the first page, within a fine illuminated border, is a miniature painting of a Physician in his Cabinet, with his coat of arms opposite (azure, 2 cocks affronté, or, between 3 stars, or, with motto "loué soil-il," or, "loué il soit," half bound, XV^e Siècle (641) Quaritch, £99
[An important and interesting Manuscript, containing,

besides the Herbal, many other Treatises of Diseases and their Remedies, the Secrets of the School of Salerne, a Methodical Table of Remedies, with a Dictionary, an Alphabetical Exposition of Obscure Words, and various notes and recipes in Latin and French, and references to some notable Medical Authorities of the Period, more or less connected with the Abbey of Clugny. Manuscripts of this character are very uncommon.—Catalogue.]

- 3160 Herbarius sive Aggregator (R.) ogatū plurimor' inopū mēmor' egentīū appotecas refutatiū ob id pseus opusculū suā spsit denominacōnē Aggregator practicus de simplicib', lit. 40th., 173 leaves, long lines, 34 to the full page, 150 numbered woodcuts of herbs in contemporary colouring, names in Latin and German, text in Latin, numerous MS. additions, blank corner of title and bit of margin from another leaf torn away, and a few small wormholes at beginning, but a sound copy, having the 18 extra leaves at the end and the blank leaf, old calf, Moguntæ, impressus (P. Schoeffer), 1484, small 4to. (653) Robson, £25
[The rare first edition (with a date) of this famous herbal from Schoeffer's press, and having his shields in red on the title.—Catalogue.]
- 3161 Herbarius Patauie impressus anno dom'i & cetera LXXXV., lit. 40th., 174 leaves, including a blank, long lines, 34 to the full page, 150 cuts of herbs in contemporary colouring, two leaves misplaced, bit torn out of blank margin of title, fine large copy, old half calf, *s. l. et n. t. Pickering, £505

[This exceptional copy is unrecorded by Blades, who notes 10 copies, half of which are perfect and half imperfect. The present was quite perfect, and had every leaf genuine throughout, and measured $11\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $8\frac{3}{8}$ in. In all probability this copy has not been seen by any person since the original owner's death in the latter half of the last century. The first 7 leaves were discoloured and more or less wormed, but not badly, while the remainder was perfectly clean and sound. The work was loose in the binding, and the back margins were frayed by the friction caused by the dust from the oaken boards. A curious contemporary MS. note on one of the leaves reads, "Bridgett Edwardes hir booke, and he that steales this booke shall be hanged," etc., and on the last leaf, "Ricardo Harrys clerico constat iste liber."—Catalogue. The Ashburnham copy wanting 8 leaves, but measuring $11\frac{1}{8}$ in. by $8\frac{1}{2}$ in., sold for £760. See BOOK-PRICES CURRENT, vol. xi., No. 4887.—ED.]

L. s., 3 pp. 4to., n. d., to Thackeray, rare: "What a wretched affair is the Battle of Life, scarce even has few good touches that generally redeem Dickens." "Dickens' last Dombey has a very fine account of the over-cramming Education System, worth whole volumes of Essays on the subject," etc. (1538) Sabin, £12 5s.
- 3323 Thackeray. The National Standard of Literature, Science, Music, Theatricals, and the Fine Arts, Nos. 1 to 39, forming

vol. i. and part of vol. ii., containing the whole of the contributions distinctly traceable to Thackeray, with his humorous illustrative woodcuts, old half binding, London, 1833 (1539) Quaritch, £40

[A highly important item, hardly known to Thackeray collectors, though surpassing in rarity and interest either the Snob or Flore et Zephyr. It contains 13 original articles and 12 woodcuts which have never been reprinted, except the last, entitled "The Devil's Wager," reproduced in an altered form in the "Paris Sketch Book." These articles contain some of Thackeray's earliest published work, both literary and artistic, and include humorous verses on Louis Philippe, Braham the actor, N. M. Rothschild, A. Bunn, and Sir Peter Laurie, accompanied by their portraits.—Catalogue.]

- 3324 Thackeray. The original Design in pen and ink by W. M. Thackeray for the etching "Major Sugarplums," Vanity Fair, p. 319, varying greatly from the plate as published (1540) Robson, £32

- 3325 Thackeray. Original very humorous pencil Drawing "This is Tom Bluck," accompanied by a verse of 6 lines in Thackeray's autograph, formerly the property of Macrone the publisher, with the following inscription in his handwriting at the back, "Original. Drawn by W. M. Thackeray, 1836, Paris" (1541) Sabin, £14

- 3326 Thackeray. Original Sketch in blue ink, entitled "Repos en Egypte," a humorous representation of the Flight into Egypt, depicting a family group resting in the desert, composed of Mary knitting, Joseph smoking, and the infant child playing with a toy windmill (1542) Quaritch, £35

[An interesting but very unusual example of Thackeray's artistic skill, the subject being treated in a wholly unexpected manner. Formerly the property of Francis Mahony (Father Prout), who has written at the top, "This shocking specimen of depraved taste is a melancholy memorial of poor Thackeray, F. M."—Catalogue.]

 3355 America. A small Terrestrial Globe of early date, of gilt brass, $2\frac{3}{4}$ in. in diameter. Of the continents shown Europe and Africa are the most correctly figured; Asia has the shore lines very incorrectly given; the East Coast of North America and the whole of South America are very fairly drawn. The West Coast of North America is very incorrectly portrayed, but a wide sea separates it from the Eastern (or China) coast of Asia. In this respect the object has unusual and remarkable cartographical interest, for in nearly all early maps this gulf is omitted. The names of the countries of Europe are correctly marked, but many of those of Northern Africa and Central Asia appear to have been given from a study of the writings of the classical authors. Latitude and longitude are shown by two narrow gradated bands, one passing round at the Equator, the other taken from a point a little to the west of Spain. The central part of the western side of North America is marked "DERICTA" ANO 1530, a statement of great value in fixing the date of this early globe. Conventional sea-monsters and vessels are depicted in the various oceans, and on the lower half are two shields of arms, one bearing a standing figure of St. Peter holding keys and with two crossed keys in sinister field, the other a lion rampant regardant (holding a slipped rose?) surmounted by a bend charged with a star and the Papal mounts (?) (57) Quaritch, £5 1
 [It is possible that this very remarkable and highly interesting and valuable object formed part of an early Orrery. It is fashioned in two halves, the lower of which is pierced with irregularly placed holes of circular, trefoil, or other form. From the presence of the date (1530) and the mention of an historical incident, it is to be reasonably presumed that it was made very shortly after the event so recorded. The character of the armorial bearings seems to point to the globe being of Spanish or Italian manufacture.—Catalogue. Compare this description with the details given of the Hunt-Lenox Globe in Henry Stevens's "Recollections of Mr. James Lenox of New York," London, 1886, p. 140, et seq.—ED.]

Jugge, 1568, folio (79) Tregaskis, £22 10s.
[First edition of the Bishops' Bible. The tradition attached to this volume is that it was presented by Queen Elizabeth to a member of the Honynwood Family; and this tradition is borne out by the fact that the centrepiece is engraved with the Royal Arms, and with the initials E.L. RE. on each side, and the same inscription is on the clasp holders. The bosses are engraved with the Tudor Rose. The volume was unfortunately imperfect, as it wanted the title and some preliminary leaves, and some leaves at the end were injured.—Catalogue.]

4792 Plinius Secundus. Historia Naturalis, Lib. XXXVII., finely printed in Roman letter, contains 355 leaves and 2 blank leaves, the first page of Book I. has a large and finely painted and illuminated initial, with the inner margin decorated in a similar style; the first page of Book II. (this leaf on paper) is decorated in a remarkable manner, being surrounded by a painted and illuminated border of scrolls and flowers with medallion head of Pliny in centre of outer margin, and two winged sphinxes below supporting a coat of arms of the Donati family, the initial M. being in gold on a blue arabesque ground, with Roman arms below and winged Cupid shooting above, each book has a large and finely painted and illuminated initial, some with figures of naked boys in gray with a background of landscape, others with white scrolls on a blue arabesque ground, and the letter itself in gold, and there are hundreds of smaller painted and illuminated capitals, all these illuminations are in the highest style of the Renaissance Period, old red morocco with rich gilt back and broad side borders, and Sir M. M. Sykes's arms in centre, Impressum Venetiis per Nicolaum Jenson Gallicum, 1472, folio (2949)

[Printed upon vellum, of excessive rarity, only five or six copies being known. This copy has the following remarkable history: It was evidently illuminated for one of the Donati family, several of whose members became Doges of Venice. The next oldest possessor appears to have been Louis Foucquet, Bishop of Agde, who presented it to the Presbyters of the Oratory of that town as appears from the following inscription on the margins of the first page of text: "ex dono illustrissimi et Reverendissimi D.D. Ludovici Foucquet Episcopi Agathensis Presbyterorum Oratorii Agathensis." It then appears to have passed into the possession of Sir Robert Harley from the following inscription on the original vellum fly-leaf: "This Book formerly Lord Oxford's was bought by him of Andrew Hay for 160 guineas." It then occurs in the sale (1799) of Dr. Chas.

- Chauncy's Books (whose portrait is inserted in the cover), where it realised £65. Then it proceeded to Count Macarthy, at whose sale it brought 705 francs, thence to Payne and Foss in 1817, priced by them £65; sold by them to Sir M. M. Sykes for £72 9s., and bought by the late Earl of Ashburnham for £90. It also has the Ex-Libris of the Duke of Sussex. The Sunderland copy sold for £220. A portion of the above pedigree of this remarkable copy is given by the late Dr. John Holmes of the British Museum in a letter to the late Earl of Ashburnham.—Catalogue.]

[A volume containing some extraordinarily rare tracts relating to important French matters, chiefly in the reign of Francis I. The tracts of Bernardin Rince are extremely valuable ; the "Oraison" of the Bishop of Vance, the "Entrees de la Roynie in Normandie," the "Reduction des Enfans de France," and the "Complaincte de Germanie," are very little known. But perhaps the rarest of all, and the most interesting to English collectors, is the last tract in the volume—the treaty of peace between Louis XII. and Henry VIII. of England, with a little-known printer's name attached to it which appears to be quite unknown to bibliographers, and is probably unique. It was this treaty of peace between the two kings which led to the marriage of Louis with Mary, the sister of Henry. Rince's tract, "Le Livre et Forest," bears the signatures of Francis I., "Fran-

- coys"; "Jacquet de Bearnois" and "Simon Caille" on last leaf.—Catalogue.]

 circa 1484]*", small 4to. (3453) Pickering, £2 30
- [An excessively rare specimen of Machlinia's London press, of which Dibdin gives a long description and extracts in "Bib. Spenc.," iv., 387. It is in Latin and English prose and rhymed verse. The types used are the same as those in the "Terentius" (post, No. 5145). The volume was quite perfect, containing 116 leaves, very clean and bright, and was a most desirable specimen of the press of the first London printer, who, unfortunately, rarely or never put dates to his few productions.—Catalogue.]
- 5071 Speculum Vitæ Christi. "Incipit Speculum Vite Cristi," woodcuts, black letter, long lines, 33 to a full page, with printed marginal notes, signatures a-t in 8's (a† (a blank leaf) wanting; †4 a blank, with Caxton's device on reverse, a line in a8 mended, and three words supplied in MS., lower plain margins of b ii, iii, iiii mended), but generally in excellent condition, modern morocco extra, gilt edges,

Emprynted by Wylllyam Caxton, n. d. or p. (1488?), small folio (3454) Pickering, £5 10

[Blades enumerates 10 copies of this excessively rare Caxton, of which only three are perfect, including this one, which is described by him as "perfect," though it has the slight defects mentioned above. It was nevertheless a very fine and desirable copy, and it is apparently the edition marked "B" by Blades.—Catalogue.]

- 5072 Speed (John). The Theatre of the Empire of Great Britaine, first edition, numerous maps, etc. (inner margins guarded), contemporary calf, with blind stamped ornaments (re-backed), J. Sudbury and G. Humble, 1611, royal folio (3456) Ellis, £7

"The Duke of Anjou came incognito to England in 1579, to visit Queen Elizabeth, and it was this unmanlike, unprincelike . . . French kind of wooing to which Stubbes alludes at the close of this tract." Vide interesting MS. notes of R. Farmer and others, inside covers, and on title-page.—Catalogue. According to Camden ("Life of Queen Elizabeth," p. 486), the Queen was greatly incensed at this book, as she was persuaded that the object of the author was to incite the people against her. Camden saw the sentence executed, and declares that Stubbes, after his right hand was cut off, took off his hat with the left and shouted "God save the Queen!"—ED.]

[An unpublished sporting work. The title-page to this volume is somewhat misleading; at the first glance it would appear these drawings are the work of the author of "The Deccanite," but upon closer inspection there can be but little doubt that they are by Alken. The book was probably prepared for publication, but never issued, the author of "The Deccanite" supplying the necessary descriptive inscriptions to these inimitable drawings. The work was dedicated to Sir Edward Smythe, Bart., and the Shropshire Hunt, in which it is described as a burlesque characteristic book of amusement for the sporting community.—Catalogue.]

[This excessively rare volume is probably the first book issued by Pynson. The eminent expert Monsieur A. Claudin thus describes it at length :

“Ce volume, qui porte à la fin la marque de Guillaume Le Talleur, imprimeur à Rouen a été imprimé dans cette dernière ville pour le compte de Richard Pynson, son compatriote établi libraire à Londres. A la fin de la table, qui est placée en tête, on lit cette mention (2^e feuillet, verso) : Per me R. Pynson. De prime abord, on a cru pouvoir inférer que le livre avait été imprimé à Londres par Pynson.

“Les bibliographes anglais les plus accrédités : Ames, Herbert, Dibdin et en dernier lieu M. Gordon Duff, rejettent cette opinion. Guill. Le Talleur a exercé à Rouen de 1487 à 1491 jusqu'au moment où Martin Morin reprit son imprimerie et lui succéda. Quoique non datée, l'impression du Statham ne peut-être postérieure à cette date. M. Gordon Duff, l'homme le plus compétent en la matière, la fix à l'année 1490. Pynson n'était que libraire et n'était pas encore imprimeur. Le premier livre qu'il ait réellement imprimé est daté de 1493. Ames et Herbert disent positivement que Pynson, à ses débuts, fit imprimer les Tenures de Littleton, et autres livres de droit anglo-normand sur le Continent, parcequ'à Rouen, on comprenait mieux le dialecte normand et qu'on pouvait l'imprimer plus correctement que nulle part en Angleterre. Une fonte spéciale avec abréviations et signes particuliers imitant la petite écriture anguleuse des scribes judiciaires en Angleterre, dite type de secrétaire : ‘secretary type,’ fut employée pour ces sortes d'ouvrages.

“A ces observations, ajoutons une remarque personnelle qui vient matériellement les corroborer : le papier employé pour le Statham est d'origine essentiellement française ; les filigranes sont : la majuscule M fermée, dans le jambage du milieu de laquelle est enchevêtrée une petite lettre p. marque qui se rencontre dans les premiers livres imprimés à Abbeville en 1486 et 1487, l'étoile à huit raies l'écu aux armes de Bourbon qui se trouvent dans beaucoup de livres imprimés à Paris à la même époque.”—A. Claudin.]

It measures 12 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., and is one of the copies with the misprints in the pagination of "The Taming of the Shrew" and "All's Well that Ends Well." On the inside of the end cover is the contemporary signature of Dr. Richard Morris, viii. July, 1650.—Catalogue.]

- 7520 Shakespeare and Herbert. Saravi (Giovanni). I Quattro Libri della Filosofia, old vellum binding, with the signatures of W. Shakespeare written twice outside the cover, and the indistinct remains of another signature which readily suggest Herbert, and two lines of verse, Vinegia, 1565, 8vo. (340) A. Jackson, £102

[The provenance or pedigree of this book does not go so far back as the Montaigne with Shakespeare's signature in the British Museum. The earliest notice of its existence dates from 1811, and down to 1845 it remained in the hands of one or two owners of no literary pretensions or discernment. The first person who observed the autograph of Shakespeare was Mrs. Taylor, wife of the gentleman who bought the book for its own sake for sixpence in 1824. The lady cleaned the cover, and partly effaced the writing ; but one of the Shakespeare signatures is perfectly clear.

In 1845 this remarkable relic was offered at an auction in Piccadilly (Fletcher's) and purchased by Pickering for twenty-one guineas, he having seven years previously acquired the Florio Montaigne at Evans's for £105 ; and in a letter of June 6, 1845, addressed to Mr. B. Dockray, Mr. Pickering says : "The autograph on this volume of Saravi exactly corresponds with the Montaigne autograph.

- I purchased this volume of Saravi's, believing it to be the true autograph of Shakespeare; it is also the opinion of Mr. Frederick Madden, Keeper of the MSS. in the British Museum, that it is true, and of many others."—Catalogue.]
- 7521 Shaw (Simeon). History of the Staffordshire Potteries, and the Rise and Progress of the Manufacture of Pottery and Porcelain, etc., uncut, Hanley, 1829, 8vo. (68) Maggs, £1 3s.

GENERAL INDEX
Book=Prices Current.

It has frequently been suggested by subscribers to BOOK-PRICES CURRENT that it would be convenient to have a general Index to the first ten volumes. The issue of the tenth volume seemed to mark a suitable time to make such an Index, and to ascertain whether the subscribers would support such an undertaking sufficiently to enable it to be carried out.

The peculiarly arduous work of compiling such an Index, and the great expense which it would entail in consequence of the nature of the work, will make it needful that all the present subscribers to BOOK-PRICES CURRENT should each take a copy.

It is proposed to issue the Index at One Guinea net if possible. The Publisher will be glad to receive the names of Subscribers, with a view to ascertain how far the scheme commends itself.
